Fresh and drinkable

Appearance: Pale straw in colour, with thin and persistent head; carbonation based on style

On the nose: fruity notes given by the hop used during fermentation process

Mouthfeel: Fresh and vibrant start, with notes of cracker and bread pasta with some fruit hints that gives way to the subtle malt character and stone fruit hints, like apricot and plum. It finishes dry, well-balanced and clean on the palate.

Light, vibrant, easy sipping beer, with low alcohol content that makes it really easy-drinking.

Beer style: Original beer style from the city of Cologne, in Germany; according to the convention, this style is mostly characterised by the use of only Pilsner malt and fruity yeasts. In the city of Cologne this beer is served in Kölschglas, a tall, thin, cylindrical 20-cL glass.
